Dear Mr. Hayes:

Since writing you the other day, I have been discussing the training trip with Mr. Hanley, and he has made some suggestions that seem to me to be very good. I thought I would pass them on to you, and you could see how they sound to you. He said due to the fact that the conflict has arisen about Little Rock, there are some other towns we could play in, in fact he wouldn't care if we did not go so far as Little Rock. That is quite a way from Daytona Beach, and as it looks that would be our first stop, unless you could arrange some place to stop and play and break the jump. Now we played in Augusta Ga. and the man there was very cooperative. He told us if we ever came back he would do all he could to put it over. The man's name is Mr. Troy Agnew. He is the Pres. and Bus. Mgr.

The best spot would possibly be Atlanta. If it would be possible to get it that would work out fine. I am sure some one has it by this time, but it would not hurt to try.

I wish you would have Mr. Welch to write me, so far I have not had a line from either of you. All I know is our conversation in Chicago. I do like to get my affairs arranged before the last minute if possible. If you have not done anything definite, at least drop me a card and say you are working on it. Will appreciate hearing from you.

Very Truly Yours
